

Virtual DEI Speaker Series:

Embracing and Understanding the Family Perspective

Do you ever wonder:

- If a health service effectively helps families?
- How navigating health systems could be easier for families?
- How our own experiences may impact our health services for families?

Join us for Embracing and Understanding the Family Perspective, a two-part, meaningful online session and participatory group discussion to explore:

- What families experience as they access and navigate health services
- How to tailor health systems to serve individual family needs and challenges
- How to support good health outcomes and opportunities for personal growth among family members
- How we as professionals affect both the person in treatment and other health care professionals

Dates: June 6 (Part 1) and June 7 (Part 2)

Time: 10 a.m. – noon (both days)

Presenter: Lisa Kennedy

Lisa Kennedy is a Family Peer Support Specialist with the York County Department of Human Services in York, Pennsylvania. She is also an independent consultant for Kennedy's Education Consulting Services and serves additional organizations with education and resources. Through her professional and foster parent experiences, Lisa has created several family programs. She has been supporting families in various roles for more than 25 years.
