Your rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

| Get a copy of your health and claims records | • You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
• We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee. |
| Ask us to correct health and claims records | • You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete.
• Ask us how to do this.
• We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days. |
| Request confidential communications | • You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
• We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say “yes” if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not. |
| Ask us to limit what we use or share | • You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment or our operations.
• We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. |
| Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information | • You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with and why.
• We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months. |
| Get a copy of this privacy notice | • You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. |
| Choose someone to act for you | • If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
• We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action. |
| File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated | • You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us. Call the Member services telephone number for your county listed on the back of this notice.
• You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
• We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint. |
For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

Your choices

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends or others involved in payment for your care.
- Share information in a disaster relief situation.
- Share information with you through mobile and digital technologies as may be available through your plan (such as sending information to your email address or to your cell phone by text message or through a mobile app).

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information with others (such as to your family or to a disaster relief organization) if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety. However, we will not use mobile and digital technologies to send you health information unless you agree to let us do so.

The use of mobile and digital technologies (such as text message, email or mobile app) has a number of risks that you should consider. Text messages and emails may be read by a third party if your mobile or digital device is stolen, hacked or unsecured. Message and data rates may apply.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes.
- Sale of your information.

Our uses and disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

| Help manage the health care treatment you receive | We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you. | Example: A doctor sends us information about your diagnosis and treatment plan so we can arrange additional services. |
| Run our organization | We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary. We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. This does not apply to long-term care plans. | Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you. |
| Pay for your health services | We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services. | Example: We share information about you to coordinate payment for your health services. |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Administer your plan</th>
<th>We may disclose your health plan information for plan administration.</th>
<th>Example: We share health information with others who we contract with for administrative services.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Coordinate your care among various health care providers</td>
<td>Our contracts with various programs require that we participate in certain electronic Health Information Networks (“HINs”) and/or Health Information Exchanges (“HIEs”) so that we are able to more efficiently coordinate the care you are receiving from various health care providers. If you are enrolled/enrolling in a government-sponsored program, such as Medicaid or Medicare, please review the information provided to you by that program to determine your rights with respect to participating in an HIN or HIE.</td>
<td>Example: We share health information through an HIN or HIE to provide timely information to providers rendering services to you.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways — usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information, see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Address workers’ compensation, law enforcement and other government requests

We can use or share health information about you:
- For workers’ compensation claims.
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official.
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law.
- For special government functions such as military, national security and presidential protective services.

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

- We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Additional restrictions on use and disclosure

- Certain federal and state laws may require greater privacy protections. Where applicable, we will follow more stringent federal and state privacy laws that relate to uses and disclosures of health information concerning HIV/AIDS, cancer, mental health, alcohol and/or substance abuse, genetic testing, sexually transmitted diseases and reproductive health.

How we protect your information

PerformCare is dedicated to safeguarding your protected health information (PHI). We set up policies and procedures to help make sure your PHI is secure. We keep your oral, written, and electronic PHI safe using physical, electronic, and procedural means. These safeguards follow federal and state laws. Some of the ways we keep your PHI safe include offices that are kept secure, computers that need passwords, and locked storage areas and filing cabinets. We have written policies and procedures requiring our employees to protect PHI. The policies limit access to PHI to only those employees who need the data to do their job. Employees are also required to wear ID badges to help keep people who do not belong out of areas where sensitive data such as PHI is kept. Also, where required by law, our affiliates and non-affiliates must protect the privacy of data we share in the normal course of business. They are not allowed to give PHI to others without your written OK, except as allowed by law.

Our responsibilities

PerformCare takes our Members’ right to privacy seriously. To provide you with your benefits, PerformCare creates and/or receives personal information about your health. This information comes from you, your physicians, hospitals and other health care services providers. This information, called protected health information, can be oral, written or electronic.

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We are required by law to ensure that third parties who assist with your treatment, our payment of claims or health care operations maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information in the same way that we protect your information.
- We are also required by law to ensure that third parties who assist us with treatment, payment and operations abide by the instructions outlined in our Business Associate Agreement.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

Discrimination is against the law

PerformCare complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. PerformCare does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

PerformCare reduces language barriers to accessing services through the New Jersey Children's System of Care by:

- Providing free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
  - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats).
  - Telecommunication devices such as Device for the Deaf (TDD) and Text Telephone (TTY) systems to enable individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or speech-impaired to use the phone to communicate.
- Providing language services at no cost to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
  - Qualified interpreter services.
  - Information written in other languages.

If you need these services, contact PerformCare at 1-877-652-7624 or [TTY (for the hearing impaired) 1-866-896-6975]. We are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

If you believe that PerformCare has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can submit a complaint by mail or phone, by either calling PerformCare's Quality department at 1-877-652-7624 or by writing to:

PerformCare
Attn: Quality Department
300 Horizon Center Drive, Suite 306, Robbinsville, NJ 08691

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf, or by mail or phone at:
